<General Instructions For Residents>

1 Use of Facilities and Equipment

All facilities and equipment must be used with due care, and kept in good condition. Please be sure to take off your shoes before entering your apartment. Residents who lose, damage or destroy any property through negligence will be required to make appropriate repairs or to pay for the damage.

2 Alteration, Repair, and Remodeling of Facilities and Equipment

Residents are not allowed to attempt alteration, repair, or remodeling of facilities and equipment. This should be done only by the University, if and when necessary. However, residents may make minor changes, such as repositioning the apartment's furnishings.

3 Other Important Information

(1)Equipment Malfunctions

Inform the office as soon as possible concerning the malfunction of electricity, gas, drainage, water supply, air conditioning, etc.

(2)Air Conditioning

Residents are responsible for adjusting the temperature in their apartments. It is forbidden to use gas stoves or oil heaters, etc., for fire prevention.

(3)Keys

The A • B Wings uses a numeric keypad method. Please do not forget the security code or let anyone else know. The C Wing loans keys to the apartments, and therefore, residents are responsible for their key while living in the building. If a key is lost or damaged, please report it to the office promptly. In this case you will be asked to pay the actual cost for a replacement. Also, it is strictly forbidden to make or purchase copies of the keys as well as loan them to others.

(4)Smoking

Smoking in both your own room and common facilities are strictly prohibited. Those who smoke are asked to do so in the designated smoking areas.

(5) Fire Prevention

Please exercise the greatest of care to prevent fires. Residents must not bring explosive or inflammable materials into the International House. When going to bed, please check that all gas taps are properly turned off.

(6)Danger Spots

Parents should be careful not to allow children to approach the pond or power cable pylons, as they are extremely dangerous.

(7)In Case of Emergency

Upon discovery of fire, theft, etc., take emergency action and notify the office. If no staff members are in the office, please inform the or tutors.

(8)Fire Prevention Equipment

Fire extinguishers, fire alarms, and emergency exits are provided on each floor. All residents are asked to learn the location and handling of these facilities and devices.

(9) Room Inspections

When examination of equipment and room fittings is necessary, staff may enter the apartments after obtaining the consent of the residents. However, in emergencies, such as fire, they will enter the room without consent.

(10) Illness

Please inform the office if medical treatment by a doctor is urgently necessary. If no staff members are in the office, inform the tutors.

(11) Health and Hygiene

(a) Residents must keep their rooms and shared facilities clean and tidy.

(b) Residents are responsible for cleaning their apartments.

(c) Garbage will be collected by Toyonaka City. Please separate your garbage according to type before putting it out (Refer to the pamphlet on “How to put out your trash”). Garbage should be put in the specified collection area on collection days. Please strictly observe the regulations to ensure that your garbage will be properly collected. Do not dispose of electric appliances such as air conditioners, TV sets, refrigerators, washing machines and personal computers in the same manner as your regular garbage. Disposal fees (payable at electronics stores and elsewhere) are required when disposing items such as the above.

(d) Residents are asked to exercise care not to disturb the community with undue noise or unpleasant smells, or by placing things in communal areas.

(e) If the communal areas (entrance, lobby, corridors and staircases) become dirty and cluttered through the carelessness of a resident, the resident will be asked to take immediate responsibility for cleaning up for the area.

(12) Pets

Residents may not keep animals such as dogs or cats.

(13) Use of Shared Facilities

(a) The lobby, multipurpose room and Japanese-style room are available under the provision of the Internal Regulations. Unaccompanied children are not allowed to enter these facilities.

(b) Since it is dangerous to go on the roof, access will be blocked except in emergencies.

(c) Residents with bicycles and motorcycles are asked to notify the office for permission to park them in the designated areas.

(14) Beddings

Residents may use the lending service providing bedpads, sheets, duvets, pillows and pillowcases. If necessary, please apply at the office at least one week before you move in.

(15) Telephone Service

For those who are interested, local, long-distance and international calls in their rooms can be made according to established procedure. A public telephone is available in front of the office.

Please note that the office cannot forward telephone calls made to the office number on to you.

(16)Mail

A mailbox is located next to the elevator on the 2nd floor of of the A · B Wings, and next to the elevator on the 1st floor of the C Wing. Messages and notices from the office are delivered to these mail boxes. Please use the office's mailbox when you wish to contact the office after office hours. Registered mail for which the recipient's signature is necessary will, however, be delivered directly to one's apartment. If the resident is away, the office may accept certain kinds of mail on the resident's behalf.

(17)Items for Loan

Vacuum cleaners, irons, and ironing boards, etc., are provided for the use of residents. Please ask at the office. This equipment is for shared use, so please return borrowed items promptly.

(18)Visitors

Non-residents are not permitted to stay overnight except when the non-resident is taking care of a resident who is ill. In such cases, please inform the office.

(19)Absence

When residents stay out overnight, they are asked to inform the office in advance so that they can be contacted in an emergency.

(20)Regular Delivery of Newspapers, Laundry, etc.

Residents are asked to arrange privately for the delivery of newspapers, laundry, etc., and to settle bills directly with the parties concerned.

(21) Prohibition of Motor Vehicles

Motor vehicles may not be brought onto the premises.

(22) Gate Lock

The gate to the parking area is locked from 11p.m. until 7a.m. of the following day.

※The office will inform residents of any changes that may be made in these Rules and Regulations.

2. In principle, dormitory fees that have already been paid shall not be refunded.

(Exemption from dormitory fees)

Article 11 Under any the following conditions, the Administrator may choose to exempt a Dormitory Student from the dormitory fees:

- (1) When his/her school registration has been deleted due to death or absence, and there are unpaid dormitory fees a month after the event.
- (2) When he/she (excluding international students) or the person who mainly pays his/her school expenses suffers damage caused by a natural disaster (for example, wind or flooding) and for this reason finds it extremely difficult to pay the dormitory fees; such a student may excused from paying any dormitory fees for up to six months from the month following the disaster

2. Dormitory Students who apply for the exemption described in item (2) of the preceding paragraph must submit the necessary documents to the Administrator. If the period of exemption extends into the following year, the Dormitory Student must follow the same application procedure again at the beginning of that year.

(Paying for utilities)

Article 12 1. Dormitory Students must pay for water, heating, and other utilities (based on the classification included separately) by a specified date each month.

2. In principle, water, heating and other utility payments that have already been made shall not be refunded.
3. For students wishing to apply for an exemption from water, heating, and other utility bills, the provisions of the preceding Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(Cleaning expenses)

Article 13 1. International students who live in the international student dormitory shall pay any cleaning expenses required to restore their rooms to their original state, after they have moving out of the dormitory. This payment is required, regardless of how long the international students have lived in the dormitory.

2. In principle, the above payment for cleaning expenses (regardless of the specific amount) shall not be refunded.

3. Dormitory Students may not have guests or share their rooms with anyone who is not a dormitory resident.

4. Dormitory Students must cooperate with the University's fire prevention, accident prevention, and health and hygiene regulations and advice.

(Moving out of the dormitory)

Article 15 If a Dormitory Student wishes to move out of student dormitory, he/she must submit the appropriate form to the Administrator at least one month before the intended departure date; this rule excludes the cases such as those described below:

(Being ordered to leave the dormitory)

Article 16 1. If a Dormitory Student is considered to have behaved in any of the ways described below, the Administrator may ask him or her to leave the dormitory at any time, even during the residence period mentioned in Article 9.

(1) When he/she committed an act that significantly disrupts the management of the dormitory;

(2) when it becomes clear that he/she made a false statement when applying for dormitory residence;

(3) when he/she fails to pay the dormitory fees or water, heating, or other utility costs for three months or more;

(4) when it is impossible for the student to study at the University for a long period because he/she has been suspended from school or registered as absent;

(5) when it is considered inappropriate for him/her to stay in the dormitory for reasons involving hygiene, for example, if the student has an illness requiring long term treatment; and

(6) when he/she has broken the rules.

2. If a person who has been ordered to leave the dormitory (for any of the reasons above) sustains damage, the University shall not be liable.

(Inspection at the time of moving out)

Article 17 When moving out of the dormitory, Dormitory Students must follow the inspection procedures, allowing their rooms and the facilities, equipment, and furniture in common use to be inspected in advance.

(Returning rooms and facilities to their original state)

Article 18 When a Dormitory Student loses, damages, or defaces the premises, or any equipment or furniture in his/her room or in common use space for his or her own reasons, he/she must restore the facilities to their original state or pay for the damage.

(Additional obligations)

Article 19 Dormitory Students must comply with other rules specified separately, in addition to these rules.

(Clerical work)

Article 20 Dormitory-related clerical work shall be handled by the Housing Division.

(Miscellaneous provisions)

Article 21 Important issues related to the management of the facilities (not already specified in the Rules) shall be decided by the Administrator in consultation with the Housing Committee.
